

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Sergeant First Class Bernard A. Lampe's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize these patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Sergeant First Class Lampe has devoted over 33 years of his life to the service of this state and country as a technical expert in the signal field and a mentor to young soldiers; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Sergeant First Class Lampe continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Sergeant First Class Bernard A. Lampe for over 33 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 2, 2013, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States of America.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of February in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Thirteen.

Dennis Daugaard
